28th Annual Conference of the International Association for Forensic Psychotherapy IAFP

Travel Advice and Accommodation

9th to 11th May 2019, Reichenau, Lake of Constance/Germany

The conference (in English language) from 9th to 11th May 2019 will be hosted by the Reichenau Centre for Psychiatry.

The historical town of Konstanz is the largest town on Lake Constance. Located at the shores of Lake Constance and the River Rhine Konstanz is close to the Swiss and Austrian Alps and the Black Forest. The Reichenau Centre for Psychiatry was founded in 1913 and is located in the periphery of Konstanz near the Monastic Island of Reichenau with its churches from 9th to 11th century which is a UNESCO world heritage.

The nearest international airport is Zürich airport with comfortable trains running to Konstanz regularly with a travel time of about 1 to 1½ hours. Other international airports are Friedrichshafen and Stuttgart (Travel time from Friedrichshafen airport to Konstanz is about 1 ½ hours either with train or the speedboat to Konstanz harbour; travel time from Stuttgart airport is about 3 hours).

From Konstanz central railway station a local commuter train “Seehas” run by Swiss Federal Railways leaves every 30 minutes to Reichenau station. The travel time is about 9 minutes. From Reichenau station it is a 5 to 10 minutes walk to the administration building of Reichenau Centre for Psychiatry. Watch out for signs indicating “IAFP-Konferenz”.
